Good morning!

This is your last reminder about the first London deposit. Charms is now up and running and I've attached a letter on how to login and view your payments or make payments as well. Please at least go in and add good email addresses to your accounts.

All people who are not "Orchestra Students" will be registered as a chaperone. So even if you are bringing a child that is not an orchestra student, they will still be labeled as a chaperone in Charms. Obviously, they will not have chaperone responsibilities on the trip.

When you are logging in as a chaperone, your PASSWORD should be your capitalized first initial and last name with first letter capitalized. (JScott)

If that doesn't work, then there may be a duplicate—you should then try First two letters of your first name along with the last— (JeScott)

Chocolate is not totally updated yet. We will try to get all of that updated by the end of the week.

If you have turned in a payment &/or the "Statement of Understanding" you should be able to access your Charms account. Everyone turning in payments needs to sign this form—CLICK HERE and scroll to the bottom for that page. Print and sign please. I have copies in my office if you need one.

If I don't have a payment or a form, your account is not set up yet.

Please email me if you need any help.
