OTHER CONSIDERATIONS

Intercontinental Air Travel

Travel from DFW to London will be on British Airways /
American Airlines / Continental Airlines

Accommodations

Accommodations are in First Class London hotels just minutes from central London. Rooms are usually two to a room with rooms for three and family rooms available. Probable hotels are Hilton, The Park Plaza, Millenium, etc.

Tours

A half-day tour of the major sights of London.

A professional English speaking guide (Blue Badge) will provide a first class informative commentary of London, its culture, and its history. The 4 hour tour will be ideally paced so that you become acquainted with much of what London has to offer. There will be plenty of stops so you can explore the monuments, have time for refreshments and lunch and brief photo stops.

A 3/4 day tour in and around Windsor Castle.

Among the many places of interest outside of, but still in the vicinity of London, Windsor is certainly one of the most famous and most important. On this, your second full-day tour, a professional English-speaking guide will be providing you with information on the town of Windsor, and then direct you through parts of this magnificent castle. The Windsor visit will take, in total, a half day. The remainder of the day is free for independent sightseeing and shopping in Windsor and London.

A 3/4 day visit to Oxford

We will also visit the city of Oxford. You will have a guided tour of OXFORD UNIVERSITY and the city with admission to CHRIST CHURCH COLLEGE (filming location for Harry Potter)

Thames River Cruise to the TOWER OF LONDON

A short panoramic boat trip through the heart of London culminating in a guided tour of THE TOWER OF LONDON. Following, we will board a coach and travel to Parliament Square for a tour of WESTMINSTER ABBEY.
