Good evening all!

Here's your PCNO Update for the week:

Tuesday (9th & 16th) S&B Rehearsals 3:15-4:30

We will only have 2 S&B Rehearsals left for the year. If you want to join you need to come to these next two.

PCNO SYMPHONY Performs at the Dodgers Game

The most immediate thing that is due is the Dodgers form for our performance at the dodgers game on August 26th. PCNO SYMPHONY is performing but all Philharmonic students/parents are welcome to come. You just need to either click HERE and fill this form out or I have forms in the orchestra room. WE NEED THESE FORMS FILLED OUT BY THIS FRIDAY!

PARENT MEETING AUGUST 22nd @6:00 PM

I will be hosting a parent meeting in the orchestra room for all orchestra parents and is designed to assist all parents who would like to know more about how to successfully help their child make their orchestra experience the absolute best. Believe it or not, your involvement and knowledge of what we do will help your child immensely. This meeting will discuss basic needs throughout the year, realistic expectations and goals, and what you can be doing as a parent to encourage and support them.

Band APP

Click HERE to join our new form of communication. We will be using this instead of Remind this year.

Activity Dues

Activity Dues are SO important to our financial survival throughout the school year. We need all students to pay or fundraise their $100 activity due for the year. We have LOADS of chocolate to sell so get your box tomorrow! You can also pay cash, make a check out to PCN POPS, or send $104 to PayPal (pcnpops@gmail.com).

Letter Jackets and Fleece Jackets

These jackets will be here on Wednesday after school for you to try out and get them ordered before winter time comes! I don't have specifics yet, but Letter Jackets are typically $250 and Fleece Jackets are around $30. Both have personalization options. Will have details out soon.

PCNO Symphony will perform as an OkMEA Honor group!

Lastly, we have EXCITING news! Our symphony orchestra was named a 2023 honor group at our OkMEA convention in Tulsa. We will also be performing on the final night (January 20) which is a BIG DEAL! Starting Tuesday the 30th, symphony will begin after school rehearsals every Tuesday from 3:15-4:30 to begin work on this performance as there will be many educators from across the state that will be present for this performance! What an honor for our amazing orchestra! Well deserved!
